Priority is given to applicants possessing the greatest need

#1: Can you afford to pay a mortgage?

Does your family meet the income requirements?

Use the table below to determine if your annual household income meets HUD's income eligibility guidelines based on family size.

FAMILY SIZE	MINIMUM INCOME	MAXIMUM INCOME
1	$34,500	$55,200
2	$39,400	$63,050
3	$44,350	$70,950
4	$49,250	$78,800
5	$53,200	$85,150
6	$57,150	$91,450
7	$61,100	$97,750
8	$65,050	$104,050

#2: What is your present housing status?

Does your current residence:

- Have structural damage?
- Lack operable plumbing or heating?
- Present a challenge of access for one or more family members?

#3: How's your credit?

A minimum credit score of 640 indicates you may be ready for homeownership.

- Can you document that your rent and utilities were paid on time for the most recent 12 months?
- Can you prove you have not had a foreclosure or bankruptcy discharged in the last 2 years?
- Is your monthly debt-to-income ratio low? (We'll help you calculate this measurement.)
- Do you have less than $2,000 in old debt? If so, can you clear that debt within 12 months?
